

WE'RE RECRUITING

PSYCHOLOGIST (Part-Time)

Job Description

The Hospice Psychologist will be part of a dedicated interdisciplinary team of professionals providing Palliative Care to patients and their families.

Duties and Responsibilities

- To conduct psychological assessments of clients, update their records as necessary and liaise with other agencies/professionals
- To plan, coordinate/facilitate and implement psychological therapy and bereavement support for clients, families and groups
- To provide the required information and consult with the team on a regular basis as well as during team meetings to enable holistic care
- To participate in research/education to the team, other professionals and the General public
- To promote awareness of palliative care

Key Attributes

- M.Sc. in Psychology and in possession of Warrant
- Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills
- In possession of the right analytical skills to interpret and evaluate information obtained from clients
- Knowledgeable about therapies and skilled in developing effective need-based treatment plans.
- Proficient use of written and verbal (Maltese and English) communication skills
- Able to work effectively on their own as well as within the team
- Effective time management skills

How to apply

Interested applicants are kindly requested to submit applications together with a detailed Curriculum Vitae and the names of two (2) referees, by not later than the 17th of June 2019 and address it to:

The General Manager
Hospice Malta
39, Good Shepherd Avenue,
Balzan, BZN 1623

Applications may also be sent by email to:
hr@hospicemalta.org

hospicemalta
care | compassion | dignity